

SORRY THIS IS LATE! MEETING IS NEXT WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 3RD MESSENGER

Oct. 2018 Digital Volume 4.10

email: mtnsideartguild@gmail.com

website: www.mtnsideartguild.org

The Mountainside Art Guild Our next meeting will be on Wednesday Oct.3, 2018at 7 P.M. Board Meeting @ 6:00 P.M. at the Clements Community Center, 1580 Yarrow St., Lakewood CO 80214

The Mountainside Art Guild is a group that welcomes all the Artists in the community and their supporters and meets on the First Wednesday of January, February, March, April, May, June, September, October and November at the Clements Community Center. Meetings inform the membership, provide demos of products and techniques of interest to the membership, refreshments and socialization. We sponsor and promote various member art shows throughout Lakewood and the surrounding areas.

LUCKY ARTIST

Our Lucky Artist of the Month for our September meeting was Mari Jane Sharpe, with her watercolor "The Fish Seller." She was born in Toronto, Canada—she moved to the Denver area "for one year"

--She just couldn't go back.

She has always liked to sketch and play at art but did not do anything seriously until 13 years ago when she began taking classes from Evelyn Martinez. She continues her joyful practice today in watercolor, pastel, acrylic and owls.

She participates in MAG shows along with Colorado Watercolor Society and smaller shows at Evelyn Martinez's studio along with other small venues.

She likes the work of Steve Hanks, Joaquin Sorolla, and the Impressionists. Her work tends to be realistic in nature.

My Best Art Tip: Take pleasure in each experience, happily learn from mistakes and be willing to experiment.

For a chance to win Artist of the Month: Bring in an Artwork Finished or in Progress and place your name in the basket on the Refreshment Table.

OCTOBER PROGRAM

Diane Fechenbach will be doing a Critique for us bring a painting best to be not quite done for her to recommend direction to travel. Remember:Painting isn't heart surgery. It is supposed to be fun. I delight in finding interesting subjects and then trying to capture a two-dimensional surface. That is only half of the picture (if you will). What really gets my juices going is capturing light. More specifically: light and shadow. Better yet, really dramatic light and shadow, or complicated light and shadow. The challenge is in identifying all of the light sources, analyzing them, and trying to render them in paint. Some light sources are pretty obvious: sunshine, lamps, fire light. Other light sources (the really intriguing ones) are not so obvious: light reflected from other objects or multiple light sources.

Sometimes shadow areas have multiple light sources – but are still in shadow. To make it more entertaining, each light source has a different color, so the objects it hits appear to be different colors. Rendering these complex lighting puzzles is the most fun of all. Diane has always looked at the world this way. From the time she was a little girl she saw the world as a series of paintings. Everywhere she looked there were wonderful compositions and delicious color. It was a shock when she learned that other people did not "see" this way. Preschoolers draw and paint with glorious abandon. Somehow that joy gets lost along the way and adults grow up thinking they cannot master art. Now, as an instructor, I delight in helping others rediscover this joy.

THANK YOU

The Miniature show was put up and runs until Friday September 28th. Thanks to all who helped! The prospectus was written by Kay Cassa and reviewed by Darcie Kurtak printing was done by Kay. Carla Stoltzfus solicited vendors for merchandise awards. Gaylene Bushor made the check in spread sheets. Darcie Kurtak made the Show Labels. Lynn Lloyd and Lynnette Kupferer got the mailed in entries ready for judging. Dori Nelson, Shirley Hendry, Linda Harris, Cheryl Annett & Lynnette Kupferer worked to help at check in. Katie Haas and Lynnette then worked for several hours to hang all the art work, we did not turn away any work this year, and so it was a much harder job. Lynne Lloyd and Carolyn, will at the end of the show, re-box and prepare for mailing all the entries--back into individual artist boxes for mailing to the mail-in entries.

I appreciate all the volunteers who work with me to have a very successful show!!
